

Fran Bessermin is a former Stevens County commissioner and a retired Spokane business owner. A passionate advocate for the senior community, she is a member and past chair of the State Council on Aging. She also serves on the Aging and Long Term Care Planning and Management Committee, the Senior Assistance Fund for Eastern Washington, and United Way Spokane Emergency Food and Shelter Program.

Ms. Bessermin has a bachelor of arts degree in sociology and K-12 education. Her work related to health has included service on the Washington State Enhanced 911 Advisory Board and on the Tri-County Board of Health. Ms. Bessermin has worked with both state and federal lawmakers, and is part of the Vulnerable Adult Abuse and Neglect Workgroup.

As a substitute teacher, she continues to be in touch with the young people in her community. Ms. Bessermin lives in Nine Mile Falls.