

Angel Reyna was born in Armeria, Colima, Mexico, on November 1, 1976 before migrating with family to the United States at the age of four beginning his life as a migrant farmworker in the Yakima and Skagit Valleys.

After graduating from Mabton High School in 1995 Angel attended Washington State University earning a BA degree in History, and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership in 2004.

In 2004 Mr. Reyna began working at Yakima Valley Community College.

In 2006 Angel was elected to the Mabton City Council, followed by being elected Mayor of Mabton in 2010.

In 2013 Mr. Reyna became the Dean of Workforce Education at Walla Walla Community College. Angel Reyna has served on several boards and committees throughout his career and is excited to be on the Washington State Board of Health.